

15. The peepal tree did not help the Brahman. So did the dog. Do you think the jackal will help him?

Let's read the next scene to see.

- Read the third scene silently and answer the questions that follow :

Session - 3

SCENE-3

Tiger : You have been away a long time. Now let us begin our dinner. I cannot wait any longer.

Brahman : But wait just one minute, my Lord. I want to explain matters to my friend here, the jackal.

Tiger : Well, be as quick as you can. I have waited too long already.

Brahman : Very well, My Lord. I won't take much time. You see Mr. Jackal, here is the trap. The tiger was inside, and when I came, I let him out.

Jackal : Oh, I see! You were in the trap and the tiger came walking by.....

Tiger (interrupting) : Nonsense ! What a fool you are! I was in the trap.

Jackal (pretending to tremble from head to foot he speaks in jumbled words meaninglessly).

Of course! Yes! I was in the trap....no, I wasn'tdear! dear! Oh , my poor brain ! Oh , my poor brain ! Let me see the tiger was in the Brahman , and the trap came walking byno, that's not it, either. Well, don't mind me, but begin your dinner, for I shall never , never understand .

Tiger (in a rage at the jackal's stupidity) :

I'll make you understand , I am the tiger, I'll

Jackal : Yes, My Lord.

Tiger : And that is the Brahman

Jackal : Yes , My Lord!

Tiger : And I was in the trap. Do you understand?

Jackal : Yes.....no.....Please, my Lord.....

Tiger : Don't you understand , you fool?

Jackal : I do, my Lord. Please don't be angry, But how did you get inside it?
The trap is too small to hold you.

Tiger : What an idiot you are !
[The tiger loses patience, and at once jumps into the trap.]
Here I am in the trap. Now do you understand how it was?

Jackal : (quickly shutting the door) Thank you very much for explaining the things to me. Goodbye, Mr. Tiger, I am sorry I took so much of your time.
[The Brahman and the jackal walk away.]

● Comprehension Questions :

1. Did the jackal help the Brahman ?
2. Was the jackal foolish, mad or clever ?
3. Why did he pretend to be foolish and mad ?
4. Who first helped the jackal understand what happened ?
5. Was the Brahman successful in doing so ?
6. When the Brahman said that the tiger was inside the trap and he was out, what did the jackal say ?
7. Who tried next to make the jackal understand what happened ?
8. Was the tiger successful in doing so ?
9. Why did the jackal say meaninglessly (words not in order)?
10. When the jackal said, "The trap is too small."What did the tiger do ?
11. What did the jackal do when the tiger jumped into the trap ?
12. In most of the plays there is a hero and there is a villain. Who is the hero and who is the villain in this play ?
13. Can you say who is the cleverest of all ?

Post-reading

Session - 4

● Visual Memory Developments Technique (VMDT) :

- i) Whole Text - (Scene Setting -as given in brackets)
 - The Brahman opens the door of the trap .
 - An old dog comes slowly along the path.

ii) Part-

(Scene-II) ● Prepare to die, holy Brahman .

● for everything is so mixed up!

(Scene-III) ● What an Idiot you are !

● Good bye Mr. Tiger.

1 Comprehension Activities:

(a) MCQs :

Choose the correct alternatives and fill in the blanks.

1. While in the trap, the tiger sees _____.
(A) a jackal passing by (B) a poor Brahman passing by
(C) an old dog coming close (D) a peepal tree standing close
2. The Brahman helps the tiger to come out of the trap , but the tiger wants to kill the Brahman . This is an act of _____.
(A) kindness (B) gratitude
(C) ungratefulness (D) unselfishness
3. The Brahman and the tiger meet _____, _____ and _____ on their way.
(A) a jackal (B) an old dog and a neem tree
(C) a peepal tree and a fox (D) a peepal tree, a jackal and an old dog
4. The peepal tree and the old dog support _____.
(A) the Brahman (B) the tiger
(C) the jakal (D) both the Brahman and the tiger
5. The ungrateful tiger is shut back in the trap because of _____.
(A) the clever tricks of the jackal
(B) the prayer of the poor Brahman
(C) the support of the peepal tree and the Brahman
(D) the tiger's sudden change of mind

- (b) Given below are the brief summary of three scenes in three boxes under column A. Match them with the scenes given under B. Draw lines.

A

A jackal takes pity on the Brahman. He puts the tiger back into the trap by his clever tricks. He lets the Brahman go free

A tiger falls into a trap. A Brahman helps him come out. But the ungrateful tiger wants to kill and eat him

The peepal tree and the old dog say they also suffer. People are ungrateful to them. They support the tiger.

B

Scene -1

Scene -2

Scene -3

- © The characters in this play stand for four types of persons in the world. The types are given under 'A' and the character in the text are given under 'B' match them.

A

Brahmin
Dog
Tiger
Jackal

B

Harm those who help them.
Help others but treated unkindly.
Help others risking their life.
Help those who help others risking their life.

Session - 5

2 Listening:

- (a) Given below are some words from the text. Listen to your teacher and tick the ones s/he reads out.

trap	complain	judgement
trust	witness	stupidity
expect	patience	toothless
repay	tremble	gratitude
favour	creature	guarded