

PART - I STEPS TO THE MAIN LESSONS

LESSON - 1

WHOSE HORSE WAS IT ?

Session - 1

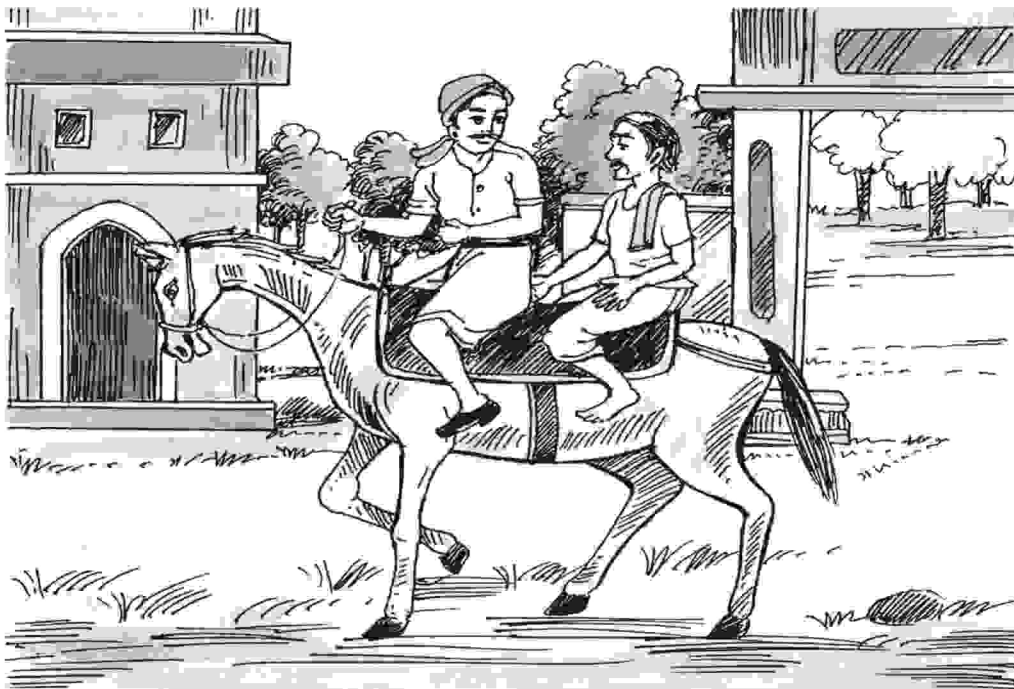

I

PRE-READING

- See the picture.
What do you see ?
Who are there ?
What can be the place ?

Look at the picture and the title of the lesson. Do you think the picture is about the title ? Read the story to know.

II

WHILE-READING

- The teacher will ask students to read the story part by part silently. After the students have read a part silently, s/he will ask the comprehension questions meant for the SGP. Only then can s/he move to the next part.

Text

- SGP-1

- Read paragraphs 1 and 2 silently and answer the questions that follow.

1. One day a young man was going to a town on his horse. Near the town gate he saw a beggar.

"Sir," the beggar cried out, "Please take me to the market on your horse. I'm lame".

The kind young man agreed. He put the beggar on the horse. Then he rode to the town.

2. They reached the market.

Then the young man said, "You can get off here".

"But I don't want to get off. You get off my horse. I want to go on," said the beggar.

"Your horse ? This is my horse."

"Your horse ?"

"Yes, it is mine. Get off! Or else I'll take you to the king's officer."

"All right, let's go to him."

- Comprehension Questions:

1. Who was going to the town ?
2. Who did he see at the town gate ?
3. What did the beggar ask for ?
4. What did the young man do ? Why ?
5. What did he ask the beggar to do at the market ?
6. What did the beggar say ?
7. Whom did they go to settle their quarrel ?

Session - 2

- SGP-2

- Read paragraphs 3 and 4 silently and answer the questions that follow.

3. So, they went to the king's officer. The young man said to him, "Sir, I was riding to the town on my horse. This man wanted to come to the town market. He is lame. So I brought him to the market on my horse. Now he says that the horse is his. Sir, please help me to get my horse from him".

4. The beggar said, "He's a thief and a liar, sir. This is my horse. I'm lame. I cannot walk well. So I bought this horse".

The king's officer looked at them. Who was the thief? Whose horse was it? He did not know.

• Comprehension Questions :

1. Who listened to their complaint?
2. What did the beggar say?
3. Could the officer decide their case?
4. The officer couldn't decide their case. Why? Let's see what will happen next.

• SGP-3

- Read paragraphs 5 and 6 silently and answer the questions that follow.

5. "Sir, may I ask him a question?" the young man said.

"Yes," the officer said, "Go on".

The young man took off his turban. Quickly he covered the horse's eyes with it. Then he said to the beggar, "This horse is yours, you say. You know your horse well. Now tell me, "Which of its eyes is blind, the left eye or the right eye?"

"Er.....er....the right eye".

"The right eye? Are you sure?"

"No, it's the left eye".

6. The young man turned to the officer and said "Sir , my horse's eyes are alright . It's not blind at all. Please look at its eyes".

The officer took off the cloth. He looked at the horse's eyes . The horse was not blind at all.

"You are a thief," he said to the beggar. "Come with me. I'll put you in prison."

• Comprehension Questions:

1. What did the young man do with his turban ?
2. What did he ask the beggar ?
3. Could the beggar answer his question ? Why ?
4. What did the young man say ?
5. What did the officer do to find the truth ?
6. What happened to the beggar ?
