APPENDIX - I LEARNING INDICATORS

(Based on NCERT Learning Outcomes Adapted to our Context in Odisha)

The following learning indicators are meant for the Non-detailed study of Class –VIII. The focus is, therefore, on developing reading skills, especially fast reading skills. This indicator is to be consulted in addition to the learning indicators provided in the Detailed Study Book.

Skills/Sub-skills Reading	Learning Indicators Learners :	Suggested Pedagogical Processes
	• read and comprehend comparatively larger chunks at a time. • quickly guess the meaning of difficult words in a context. • can read with 70% comprehension, about 50 words in a minute. • can skim through quickly to get an overall idea. • can moderately mark the story line and sign-post words related to the story line . • can get mental pictures of the context – be it the description of places or home – and get pleasure out of reading.	• Making learners read larger chunks at a time, by increasing the length of SGP. • Encouraging learners to guess the meanings of unknown words from context (method of teaching). • Laying stress on developing skimming skills through storyline activities. • Encouraging learners to read tail-pieces and other interesting reading materials not included in the textbook.

Other skills and sub-skills are provided in the Detailed Textbook.

SOME USEFUL TIPS

A. Instructions For Good Handwriting :

1. Put your writing paper on a hard plain surface, not on heaps of books, your lap or a pillow.
2. Use ink /pencil (well sharpened) ball pen; bad ball pens affect handwriting.
3. Provide margins at the top and left of the sheet of paper you are going to write on.
4. Write on straight lines. Rolled paper is more useful for the beginners.
5. Use unjoined printed letters.
6. Always tilt all your letters slightly to the right.
7. Provide proper space between words and lines.
8. Use neither too big nor too small letters.
9. Avoid over-writing.
10. Maintain distinction between your capital and small letters.
C,K,O,P,S,U,V,W,X,Y,Z
c,k,o,p,s,u,v,w,x,y,z
11. Take care of your problem letters –m,n,u,w , for example. You write the blackboard text on BB, then, move inside the class to help your students to follow these principles of good handwriting. Correct and instruct them where necessary.

B. Suggestions for asking questions during while-reading stage :

1. Ask right question to the right person.
2. Distribute questions all over the class.
3. Ask questions to the whole class-then identify whom you want to answer your questions.
4. Never answer questions yourself-provide clues to help your students to ask you questions.
5. Encourage your students to ask you question.
6. Encourage your students' questions-ask other students to answers to answer.

7. If you fail to answer any question from your student, bounce back the question to the whole class (you can answer his/her question).
8. Allow your students to answer in words/phrases....don't force them always to answer in full sentence.
9. Allow them to answer in chorus at times so that the shy ones can join with others and develop courage to answer individually later.
10. Allow your students to consult the text while answering your questions
11. Allow your students to answer in Odia, if it is difficult on their part to answer some questions in English.

C. Rules of Reading Aloud :

1. Make yourself familiar with the text before you see it in the class.
2. Introduce briefly what you are going to read.
3. Hold the book or paper up in front of you but not blocking your face.
4. Look interested in what you are reading.
5. Your voice should be clear and loud enough to be audible to all the learners. Use correct volume depending on the size and shape of the room, the number of people in it and what you are reading.
6. Don't read too fast. The listeners need time to absorb what is being read to them.
7. It is important to avoid monotony. Raise and lower your voice to show that a different character is saying a dialogue, or to indicate a change of mood or to introduce a new idea.
8. You can stress important words by increasing the power of your voice or by lowering it.
9. If you make a mistake, don't stop or repeat yourself unless the mistake alters the meaning of the text.
10. If you can, make an eye contact with your listeners by looking up from your text and looking at them. Gauge their reactions with the help of their facial expressions.
11. If you have to turn a page during the reading, have the page you are going to turn ready before you finish the page you are reading.
