

TEST - 1

Full Marks- 100

1. Your teacher gives you dictation of five 3/4 lettered words. 05
Write them.

2. Your teacher will read aloud the following lines. Listen to him/her and 07 fill in the gaps.

"They _____ to the king's _____. The _____ man said to the king's officer, Sir, I was _____ to the town in my _____.
This _____ wanted to _____ to the town market. He is _____. So, I brought him to the _____ on my horse.
_____ he says that the horse is _____. Sir, _____ help me to _____ my horse from _____.

3. There is some relationship between spelling and pronunciation. 07
Generally, there is 'ie, ei, ea, oo, ee or ou', in the spelling of a word; this signals a long sound. And Odia speakers of English have problems with long sound. They have a tendency to pronounce long sounds as short sounds. Given below are some words, underline which of them have long sounds.

agree, market, reach , please, cover , thought , punish , village ,need,
speed , under , thief, steal, peace, deep , honey , seed, fields, spring ,
bean

4. Write the following Odia names in English. 08
(Teacher will give four names of persons in Odia.)

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

5. Write the following names of places in English. 08
(Teacher will give four names of places in Odia.)

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

6. Match the words under 'A' with the words under 'B' – (who lives where). 06

A	B
horse	cowshed
dog	burrow
bird	den
cow	stable
lion	kennel
rabbit	nest

7. Read the following text and answer the questions that follow.

1. Akbar was very fond of jewellery. He had hundred of rings, rings in which diamonds and many other gems had been set. But all of the rings he had, he liked one of them the most. It was a large ring with a number of pearls and diamonds set in it. The ring was a present to Akbar from the Queen.
2. At Akbar's palace, there were eight servants who looked after the Emperor's clothes and jewellery. Every day one of these eight servants used to help Akbar get ready to go to the court. None other than these eight servants could enter the Emperor's room.
3. One day the Emperor was getting ready to go to the court. He wanted to wear his favourite ring that day. He asked one of his servants to bring it. But the servants came back saying that he could not find the ring. Akbar ordered them to search for the ring, but it could not be found.
4. Akbar was very angry. He felt that one of his servants had stolen the ring. He sent for Birbal. When Birbal came, he told him what had happened and asked him to find out the thief.

- a. Answer the following questions each in one complete sentence. 05

1. What was Akbar fond of?

2. Who presented the ring to Akbar?

3. Why was Akbar angry ?

4. Who did Akbar tell what had happened ?

5. How many servants looked after Akbar's clothes and jewellery ?

b. From the text, write five sentences about Akbar .

10

c. Given below are some sentences. As per the text, the sentences are not in order. Order them putting serial numbers in brackets provided against each sentence.

09

- Akbar was very angry. []
- Akbar was fond of jewellery. []
- The queen presented the ring to Akbar. []
- The ring was not to be found. []
- Eight servants were in charge of the jewellery. []
- Akbar sent for Birbal. []
- Akbar ordered them to search for the ring. []

- d. See the use of the following four phrases in the text. Paragraph number 08 is given against each phrase. Try to understand the meaning and use of the phrase from the context. Next read the paragraph given and fill in the gaps with the right phrases.

Find out (5) looked after, (2) sent for (5), fond of (1)

Abdul had a pet baby donkey. He was very _____ the baby donkey. He _____ the donkey very well. One day the baby donkey went somewhere. He _____ his faithful servant Ali. He asked Ali to _____ the baby donkey.

8. Read the following text and do the tasks that follow.

1. Long long ago, on the bank of the river Nagabali there was a small village named Hatibadi, and at the one end of this village was the chatasali, or village school, run by Ghana Ratha, where many children from villages nearby came to study. Ghana Ratha taught all the subjects himself, including Mathematics, Literature and Social Sciences.
2. By the side of the chatashali ran a narrow road that led to the river, and on this road, early every morning, you could see a boy named Hatia, riding a donkey and leading another by a rope. He was the son of a washer man. But as his parents were dead, he supported himself by washing the dirty clothes in the village. Everyday he took a donkey-load of clothes to the river, where he washed and dried them. When his work was finished, he returned home by the same road, together with his two donkeys. One was named Bhadra and the other Madri.

- a. Answer the following questions. 07

(i) What was the name of the river ?

(ii) What was the name of the village ?

(iii) What was the name of the teacher ?

(iv) What subjects did Ghana Ratha teach ?

(v) What was the name of the boy ?

(vi) How many donkeys did Hatia have ?

(vii) What were their names ?

b. Write four sentences about Hatia .

10

c. Rewrite paragraph-1 of the text replacing the following words/phrases at right places. 10

Mahanadi, town, Cuttack, college, principal, Satpathy, Odia, Sanskrit and English .