

Part - II

LESSON - 1

MICE

Session - 1

I

PRE-READING

Your teacher will introduce the poem in the following way.

S/he will ask the following questions :

Don't you like a mouse ? Why/ Why not ? Give reasons. Here is a poem on mice. Let us read, enjoy and see whether the poet likes or dislikes mice.

II

WHILE-READING

1. Your teacher will read the poem aloud, you will listen to him/her without opening your books.
2. S/he will read the poem aloud for the second time and you will listen to him/her following the poem in your books.
3. Read the poem silently and try to answer the questions asked by your teacher.

TEXT

I think mice
Are rather nice.
Their tails are long

Their faces small,
They haven't any Skins at all.
Their ears are pink,
Their teeth are white,
They run about
The house at night
They nibble things
They shouldn't touch
And no one seems
To like them much.

But I think mice
Are nice.

Comprehension Questions :

1. What is the poem about ?
2. Who is "I" in the first line of the poem ?
3. What are the tails of mice like ?
4. 'They have no skin at all'. Does this mean that they have no skins or they have very thin skins ?
5. What is the colour of their ears ?
6. Where do they run about at night ?
7. Which things do they nibble ?
8. Do most people like mice ? Why ?
9. Does the poet like mice ?
10. Which line tells you so ?
11. Which lines are repeated in this poem ?

III

POST-READING

1 Visual Memory Development Technique (VMDT) :

Take the photograph of the poem in your eye-cameras. Then put your index finger on the words / phrases your teacher says. Open your eyes and see whether your finger is on the right place. Repeat this activity for other words/ phrases your teacher says.

Whole Text : Pink, nibble things, faces small, like then much, The lines repeated.

2 Comprehension Activities :

(a) MCQs : Choose the correct alternatives.

i. Mice don't have _____

- a. thick skins .
- b. long tails.
- c. small faces.
- d. pink ears.

ii. Which of the following is not true?

- a. The poet likes mice.
- b. Everyone likes mice.
- c. No one likes mice.
- d. Both b. and c.

iii. They haven't any skins at all' means they have _____

- a. thick skins .
- b. very thin skins .
- c. no skins at all.
- d. black skins .

(b) Match items under column A with items under column B. Join them with lines. The first one is done for you.

- | A | B |
|------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. tails | a) at night |
| 2. faces | b) small |
| 3. skins | c) long |
| 4. teeth | d) pink |
| 5. ear | e) white |
| 6. run about | f) they shouldn't touch |
| 7. nibble things | g) haven't any |

Session - 3

3 Listening :

- (a) Tick the words/phrases your teacher reads aloud.
mice, tails, skins, ears, pink, teeth, white, nibble, nice
- (b) Your teacher reads aloud the first six lines of the poem. Fill in the gaps while listening to him/her.

I think _____
Are rather _____
Their tails are _____
Their _____ small
They haven't any _____ at all.

Session - 4

4 Speaking :

- Your teacher will read aloud one line, you will repeat after him/her. This is done twice.
- Your teacher will read one line, you will read the next line and so on.

- Students sitting on the right side will read one line and students sitting on the left will read the next line and so on.

(b) Chain-drill: "I think mice are nice."

5 Vocabulary :

Match the words /phrases under A with their opposite words under B. Join them with lines. The first one is done for you.

A		B
long		big white		everyone
no one		day
small		black night		short

Session - 5

6 Usage :

(a) When we talk about one person, it is singular. But when we talk about more than one person or thing, it is plural. A thing or a person is made plural in the following ways:

(i) By adding "s" to the word :

Singular	Plural
cat	cats
dog	dogs

(ii) By adding "es" to the word :

bus	buses
bush	bushes
mango	mangoes
box	boxes

(iii) By changing the spelling of the word :

mouse	mice
tooth	teeth

(iv) By not changing the word :

deer

deer

sheep

sheep

(b) Given below are some singular forms of some words used in this poem. Find out the plural forms of these words from the poem and write them against each of the words.

Singular

Plural

mouse

mice tail

face

skin

ear

tooth

Session - 6

7 Writing :

(a) Based on your matching above in -5 (b), Vocabulary section , write some sentences . One is done for you.

Tails.....long

Tails of mice are long.

Face _____

Skin _____

Ear _____

Teeth _____

- (b) Fill in the gaps using the words given. The first one is done for you.
(Do not see the poem while doing this task)

Poem

I think mice
Are rather
Their tails
Their faces
They haven't any skins at Their ears are Their teeth are
They run about.
The house at They nibble at They shouldn't
And no one seems
To like them
But I think mice Are

Words

all long much nice mice night pink small things touch white

Session - 7

- (c) The poet likes mice. However, you don't like them. Rewrite the poem expressing your dislikes. The first two lines are done for you.

I think mice
Are not nice.

Session - 8

(d) Write the answers to the following questions.

(i) What is the poem about ?

The poem is about _____

(ii) Who is “I “in the first line of the poem ?

(iii) What does the tail of a mouse look like ?

(iv) Where do they run about at night ?

(v) Which things do they nibble ?

8 Mental Talk :

Mentally repeat the following line of the poem:

I think mice are rather nice.

9 Let Us Think :

The Poet likes mice. Do we like his/her attitude ? Why ?

FOLLOW-UP LESSON

I LIKE BATS

Session - 1

I

PRE-READING

- Socialisation
- The teacher thinks of a pre-reading activity.

You may use pictures. You may also link the poem with the poem of the main lesson.

What are there in the picture? How do they look like? That's how bats sleep and rest hanging upside down. What an interesting way of resting and relaxing! Do you like to rest like bats hanging upside down.

In the poem 'Mice' the poet likes mice. Let's read this poem to see if the poet likes bats.

II

WHILE-READING

- Follow the steps of the main lesson.

TEXT

- Read the poem silently and answer the questions that follow.

I like bats
Hanging upside down
Like rats. Like silk-cotton fruits
Swinging in wind
What a way to relax and rewind.

I wish I could Do that Like a bat
A way to find
After a day's work
To relax and rewind
Upside down
Hang like bats.
I like bats
Hanging upside down
Like rats.

● Comprehension Questions :

The teacher is to try to frame his/her own questions. Here are some for him/her.

1. How do bats hang ?
2. What are bats compared to ?
3. Have you seen bats hanging upside down on trees in great number ?
4. Have you seen silk-cotton fruit hanging in great number ? Do they look alike ?
5. What is the meaning of the word 'rewind' ? See the dictionary at the end of this lesson.

Teacher is to frame some questions from the second stanza.

Session - 2

III

POST-READING

6 Writing :

(a) Answer the following questions.

- (i) How do bats hang ?

Bats hang _____

- (ii) What are bats compared to ?

Bats are _____

(iii) What swing in the wind ?

The silk- _____

(iv) Why does the poet like to hang like bats upside down ?

to relax and _____

(b) Let us summarise the poem. Fill in the gaps.

The poet _____ to see bats. _____

_____. Bats hang like _____.

_____. This is a good way to relax and _____.

The poet wants to _____ bats to relax _____ _____ after the day's _____.

(c) Think of writing a poem. Start with replacing 'bats' with some fruits and make minimum changes in the poem. Change the title accordingly.

WORD NOTE

(The words / phrases have been defined mostly on contextual meanings.)

nibble - gentle and playful bite of a mouse. ମୁଷାର କୁଟ୍, କୁଟ୍ କରି କାଟି ଖାଇବା pink - (colour) pale red, ପିଙ୍କ୍ ରଙ୍ଗ swinging - hanging and moving (bats have) ଝୁଲିରହି ଦୋଳାଯିତ ହେଉଥିବା relax and rewind - taking rest (with occasional backward movement) ଆରାମରେ ବିଶ୍ରାମ ନେବା

upside down - legs upward and head down ward. ଗୋଡ଼ ଉପରକୁ ଓ ମୁଣ୍ଡ ତଳକୁ କରି ଓଲଟା ରହିବା